RE: Advisory Memo – Long-Term Care Facility- Adult Day Care Programs

The Division of Provider Services and Quality Assurance revised the definition of Long-Term Care Facility in the Adult Day Care manual to incorporate language from Act 905.

LONG-TERM CARE FACILITY- shall have the same meaning as prescribed by Ark. Code Ann. § 12-12-1703. Per Ark. Code Ann. § 20-10-101(10)(B), a long-term care facility does not include an Adult Day Care Program that provides care and supervision to meet the needs of twelve (12) or fewer functionally impaired adults at any time in a place other than the adult's home, or an Adult Day Care Program that provides services to clients for four (4) hours or less per day for no more than two (2) days per week.
